What's with the utility belt?
I got tired of looking around my backpack for the things that make my life more convenient
I've got my Sidekick 3 here because the browser is faster than the Sidekick 2. But I keep the Sidekick 2 handy because I like the scroll bar. Here is where I keep my digital camera with the most megapixels
This is my super small camera. And that same camera, only in black. Oh! And I also have my PSP and DS with me just in case I'm away from my XBOX or computer
So, where is the grappling hook?
I've got it right here! It's made out of Cat 5!

Are you okay?
Yeah, I'm just tired.
My wife asked me for a backrub last night
It's no big deal... We're married.
But here's the thing... someone taught me how to do the Vulcan nerve pinch at Comic Con a couple of years ago.
So whenever she asks for a massage, I use it after the first five minutes
What?
Saves me about an hour of work for the same effect!
She figured it out last night
Couch?
Worse. the doghouse...
